A SCRAP OF HISTORY AND ITS SIGNIFICANCE.

During the discussion yesterday before the Court of Impeachment, of the exception by the respondent to the competency of a member of the court, on the ground that he was a non-resident of the State, at the time of his election to the Senate, and also at the time he was sworn as a member of the court. One of the counsel for the State, who was a former member of the Senate now residing in the court, argued with emphasis and iteration, that neither the constitution nor the statutes made any provision declaring non-residence in the State, or the disqualification from exercising the duties of a Senator, when once admitted and qualified; and that upon the disclosure of such a fact regarding a person filling that station, there was no vacancy created, and that therefore Mr. Hall as a member of the Senate, could not be declared incompetent as a member of the court.

On the 25th April, 1866, the credentials of A. R. Garrett, elected a Senator from Smith and Sumner, having been presented to the counsel referred to, then a Senator, as chairman of the Committee on Elections, reported adversely on the question of his admission. The report said:
"The question in his case is whether at the date of the election, 31st March, 1866, and for one year immediately preceding the election, the claimant resided in South county, within said Senatorial district.
The 10th section of article 2 of the constitution is in the following words: 'No person shall be a Senator unless he shall be a citizen of the United States, of the age of thirty years, and shall have resided three years in this State, and one year in the county or district immediately preceding the election.'
The committee, however, do not believe that his domicile or residence was changed from Overtown to Smith, as far as the proof goes.
His name was placed on the general ticket for the House of Representatives from Overtown county in 1865, and was elected as such member, and took his seat, and as such member, he was sworn in, and a large number of citizens.

More Outrages by the Loyal Militia— Disorder and Violence in Johnson County—How the Loss of Brownlow Work Lawlessness.

Correspondence of the Union and Dispatch.
DANBURG, Tenn., May 15th, 1867.—It may interest your readers to learn something of the doings of Brownlow's State Guard in this part of his dominions. A Mr. S. T. Harris of this place has been several weeks trying to get a company organized at this place to complete the organization of the company by the election of officers, and a harder looking gang I never saw in my life. The company is mostly composed of boys from fourteen to twenty years old, not half a dozen of Federal soldiers belong to it, from the fact that the most of them are opposed to Brownlow, and have no faith in his service. After the election was over and the State Guards were returning home they met some colored men on the road, ordered them to dismount and when he dismounted they were fired at by one of them, but the colored man saved his life by running with a pistol in his hand. The ball entered his horse's hip and ruined the animal—after which some one interfered, and the colored men permitted to leave. A number of gentlemen were present in the hall, amounting to about 2000, which were equally white and black. The latter generally opposed the election of officers, and a harder looking gang I never saw in my life. The
